

Mylan Launches First Generic Version of Vfend® Tablets

Company will have 180 days of marketing exclusivity on all strengths

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 15, 2011 /PRNewswire/ -- Mylan Inc. (Nasdaq: MYL) today announced that its subsidiary Mylan Pharmaceuticals Inc. has launched Voriconazole Tablets, 50 mg and 200 mg, under a previously announced settlement and license agreement with Pfizer Inc. Mylan was the first company to have filed a substantially complete ANDA containing a Paragraph IV certification for Voriconazole Tablets and was awarded 180 days of marketing exclusivity.

Voriconazole Tablets are the generic version of Pfizer's Vfend® Tablets, a triazole antifungal agent. This product had U.S. sales of approximately $186 million for the 12 months ending Dec. 31, 2010, according to IMS Health.

Currently, Mylan has 170 ANDAs pending FDA approval representing $97.7 billion in annual sales, according to IMS Health. Forty-five of these pending ANDAs are potential first-to-file opportunities, representing $24.2 billion in annual brand sales, for the 12 months ending June 30, 2010, according to IMS Health.

Mylan Inc. ranks among the leading generic and specialty pharmaceutical companies in the world and provides products to customers in more than 140 countries and territories. The company maintains one of the industry's broadest and highest quality product portfolios supported by a robust product pipeline; operates one of the world's largest active pharmaceutical ingredient manufacturers; and runs a specialty business focused on respiratory, allergy and psychiatric therapies.
