

Mylan Announces Settlement Agreement for its First-to-File Generic Version of Nuvigil®

PITTSBURGH, April 30, 2012 /PRNewswire/ -- Mylan Inc. (Nasdaq: MYL) today announced that it has entered into a settlement agreement with Teva that will resolve pending patent litigation related to Nuvigil® (Armodafinil Tablets, 50 mg, 150 mg, and 250 mg).

The settlement allows Mylan to begin selling generic versions of 50 mg, 150 mg, and 250 mg Nuvigil under license beginning in June 2016, or earlier under certain circumstances. Pursuant to the agreement, pending litigation will be dismissed. Other details of the settlement are confidential, and the agreement itself is subject to review by the U.S. Department of Justice and the Federal Trade Commission.

Mylan was the first company to have filed a substantially complete abbreviated new drug application (ANDA) containing a Paragraph IV certification with the U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA) for Armodafinil Tablets, 50 mg, 150 mg, and 250 mg, and anticipates that it will be entitled to 180 days of generic market exclusivity. This product, which is indicated to improve wakefulness in patients with excessive sleepiness associated with obstructive sleep apnea, narcolepsy and shift work disorder, had total U.S. sales of $296 million for the 12 months ending Dec. 31, 2011, according to IMS Health.

This press release includes statements that constitute "forward-looking statements," including with regard to the settlement of the product. These statements are made pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Because such statements inherently involve risks and uncertainties, actual future results may differ materially from those expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Factors that could cause or contribute to such differences include, but are not limited to: any legal or regulatory challenges to the settlement; strategies by competitors or other third parties to delay or prevent product introductions; risks inherent in legal and regulatory processes; and the other risks detailed in the company's periodic filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The company undertakes no obligation to update these statements for revisions or changes after the date of this release.
