

Mylan Announces Investor Roadshow Regarding the King Acquisition and Update on Nebivolol

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 14 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- Mylan Laboratories Inc. (NYSE: MYL) today announced that it will be scheduling a conference call for November 1, 2004, which will be followed by an investor roadshow regarding the planned acquisition of King Pharmaceuticals and an update on its nebivolol opportunity. At that time, the Company will be providing financial guidance on a prospective basis for the combined company, as well as for Mylan on a stand-alone basis.

Immediately prior to the roadshow, Mylan plans to release its second quarter fiscal 2005 earnings results during its regular quarterly conference call on October 28, 2004. In addition, the Company expects to announce its revised earnings guidance for fiscal 2005, which was previously suspended in June 2004.

Mylan Vice Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, Robert J. Coury stated, "We are excited to announce our promised investor roadshow regarding the King acquisition and nebivolol, which will further illustrate the tremendous opportunity for our shareholders. Once the Mylan and King organizations are combined, we are confident that we will be able to achieve, on a cash EPS basis, a much higher growth rate than Mylan on a stand-alone basis, which we believe will result in greater long-term shareholder value. We are also anxious to provide investors with an update on nebivolol, the New Drug Application for which is currently under review by the Food and Drug Administration."

Forward-Looking Statements:

This press release includes statements that constitute "forward-looking statements", including with regard to the expected future business and financial performance of Mylan resulting from and following the acquisition of King, the combined company's growth rate and impact on shareholder value, and the planned road show and conference calls. These statements are made pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Because such statements inherently involve risks and uncertainties, actual future results may differ materially from those expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Factors that could cause or contribute to such differences include, but are not limited to: factors relating to satisfaction of the conditions to the acquisition, including requisite shareholder and regulatory approvals; challenges and costs relating to integration of the two businesses; delays or other time constraints during the transaction approval process that may necessitate changes in call and meeting dates; the effect of any changes in customer and supplier relationships and customer purchasing patterns; the impact and effects of legal or regulatory proceedings, actions or changes; general market perception of the transaction; the effects of vigorous competition on commercial acceptance of Mylan's and King's products and their pricing; the potential costs and product introduction delays that may result from use of legal, regulatory and legislative strategies by Mylan's or King's competitors; uncertainties regarding patent, intellectual and other proprietary property protections; exposure to lawsuits and contingencies associated with both Mylan's and King's businesses; the ability to attract and retain key personnel; other uncertainties and matters beyond the control of management of both Mylan and King; and the other risks detailed in the periodic filings filed by Mylan and by King with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Neither Mylan nor King undertakes any obligation to update these statements for revisions or changes after the date of this release.
