

Mylan Finalizes Pricing Case Settlements Previously Disclosed in Principle in 2009 10-K

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 24, 2010 /PRNewswire/ -- Mylan Inc. (Nasdaq: MYL) today announced that it has settled lawsuits brought against it on behalf of the federal government and the state of Texas pertaining to Medicaid reimbursements paid by the federal government and the state of Texas to pharmacists and other health care providers. In exchange for a release of those claims, Mylan has agreed to pay $65 million.

The settlement reflects the finalization of an agreement made in principle among the parties early in 2010 and reported in the company's 2009 Form 10-K.

The settlement agreement confirms that the resolution of the cases does not constitute an admission, finding, or evidence of fault, liability or wrongdoing by Mylan.
