Mylan N.V. and Mylan Inc. Announce Successful Completion of Consent Solicitations for Mylan Inc.'s Notes

POTTERS BAR, England and PITTSBURGH, March 12, 2015 /PRNewswire/ -- Mylan N.V. (NASDAQ: MYL) (the "Parent") and Mylan Inc. ("Mylan" and, together with the Parent, the "Companies") today announced the successful completion of the previously announced consent solicitations relating to Mylan's 3.750% Cash Convertible Notes due 2015, 7.875% Senior Notes due 2020, 3.125% Senior Notes due 2023, 1.800% Senior Notes due 2016, 2.600% Senior Notes due 2018, 1.350% Notes due 2016, 2.550% Notes due 2019, 4.200% Notes due 2023 and 5.400% Notes due 2043 (collectively, the "Notes").

As previously announced on Feb. 27, 2015, the Companies consummated the transactions contemplated by the Amended and Restated Business Transfer Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of Nov. 4, 2014, between and among Abbott Laboratories, an Illinois corporation ("Abbott"), Mylan, the Parent, and Moon of PA Inc., a Pennsylvania corporation, as a result of which Mylan became a wholly-owned indirect subsidiary of the Parent and the Parent acquired Abbott's non-U.S. developed markets specialty and branded generics business. In addition, on Feb. 27, 2015, the Parent fully and unconditionally guaranteed each series of Notes.

The consent solicitations were made pursuant to the consent solicitation statement dated March 3, 2015. As of 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on March 11, 2015 (the "Expiration Date"), the consents were received from holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Notes of each series to the adoption of the amendments described in the consent solicitation statement. The amendments modify the reporting covenants primarily to provide that, subject to certain conditions, the reports, information and other documents required to be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and furnished to holders of the Notes pursuant to the indentures governing the Notes may, at the option of Mylan, be filed by and be those of any direct or indirect parent entity rather than Mylan.

The Companies have caused to be paid to each holder who validly delivered (and did not validly revoke) a consent prior to the Expiration Date a consent fee in the amount of $2.50 per $1,000 aggregate principal amount of such holder's Notes. Any questions regarding these payments should be directed to the Information Agent and Tabulation Agent, D.F. King & Co., Inc., attention: Krystal Scudato, at (800) 398-1247 (toll free) or (212) 269-5550 (banks and brokers) (collect). J.P. Morgan and BofA Merrill Lynch acted as Solicitation Agents in connection with the consent solicitations. After such payment, the Companies and the trustee under the indentures entered into supplemental indentures to the indentures governing the Notes to effectuate the amendments.

The Parent is considered the successor to Mylan, and Mylan is the Parent's indirect wholly-owned subsidiary. Mylan's address is 1000 Mylan Boulevard, Canonsburg, Pennsylvania 15317, and its telephone number is (724) 514-1800. The Parent's address is Albany Gate, Darkes Lane, Potters Bar, Herts EN6 1AG, United Kingdom, and the Parent's telephone number is +44 (0) 1707-853-000.

Forward-Looking Statements

This press release contains "forward-looking statements." These statements are made pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such forward-looking statements may include, without limitation, statements about the acquisition (the "Transaction") by the Parent of the non-U.S. developed markets specialty and branded generics business (the "Business") of both Mylan and Abbott, benefits and synergies of the Transaction, future opportunities for the Companies and products, and any other statements regarding Mylan's or the Parent's statements about future opportunities for the Companies and products and any other statements regarding the Companies' future operations, anticipated business levels, future earnings, planned activities, anticipated growth, market opportunities, strategies, competition and other expectations and targets for future periods. These often may be identified by the use of words such as "will," "may," "could," "should," "would," "project," "believe," "anticipate," "expect," "plan," "estimate," "forecast," "potential," "intend," "continue," "target" and variations of these words or comparable words. Because forward-looking statements inherently involve risks and uncertainties, actual future results may differ materially from those expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Factors that could cause or contribute to such differences include, but are not limited to: the ability to meet expectations regarding the accounting and tax treatments of the Transaction; changes in relevant tax and other laws, including but not limited to changes in healthcare and pharmaceutical laws and regulations in the U.S. and abroad; the integration of the Business being more difficult, time-consuming, or costly than expected; operating costs, customer loss and business disruption (including, without limitation, difficulties in maintaining relationships with employees, customers, clients, or suppliers) being greater than expected following the Transaction; the retention of certain key employees of the Business being difficult; the possibility that Mylan and the Parent may be unable to achieve expected synergies and operating efficiencies in connection with the Transaction within the expected time-frames or at all and to successfully integrate the Business; expected or targeted future financial and operating performance and results; the capacity to bring new products to market, including but not limited to where the Companies use their business judgment and decide to manufacture, market, and/or sell products, directly or through third parties, notwithstanding the fact that allegations of patent infringement(s) have not been finally resolved by the courts (i.e., an "at-risk launch"); success of clinical trials and the Companies' ability to execute on new product opportunities; the scope, timing, and outcome of any ongoing legal proceedings and the impact of any such proceedings on financial condition, results of operations and/or cash flows; the ability to protect intellectual property and preserve intellectual property rights; the effect of any changes in customer and supplier relationships and customer purchasing patterns; the ability to attract and retain key personnel; changes in third-party relationships; the impacts of competition; changes in the economic and financial conditions of the Companies' business; the inherent challenges, risks, and costs in identifying, acquiring, and integrating complementary or strategic acquisitions of other companies, products or assets and in achieving anticipated synergies; uncertainties and matters beyond the control of management; inherent uncertainties involved in the estimates and judgments used in the preparation of financial statements, and the providing of estimates of financial measures, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and related standards or on an adjusted basis; and the other risks detailed in the Companies' filings with the SEC. You can access the Companies' respective filings, including the Parent's prospectus filed with the SEC on December 24, 2014, through the SEC's website at www.sec.gov, and the Companies strongly encourage you to do so. The Companies undertake no obligation to update any statements herein for revisions or changes after the date of this press release.
